Yanina Smith: Yanina is well known in the British Bulldog fraternity breeding multiple BIS under the Paseya prefix for 40 years with her mother Fran and daughter Katelin. She has owned, bred and successfully shown Dalmatians and GSD for over 20 years also. Yanina has served on multiple committees including the Judging Training Education, D&D appeals currently President of National British Bulldog Council. An all breeds judge for many years she has judged throughout Australia and NZ including many countries overseas. We welcome Yanina with her expertise to the 2019 panel.

Sharon Hannigan: Sharon comes from a fifth generation family on the land and has been surrounded with animals all her life. Horses were her original competitive area. A Staffordshire Bull Terrier was introduced to her family life for her son's tenth birthday. After success with this breed in all disciplines she was offered a Border Collie which is her ongoing passion. Sharon has adjudicated throughout Australia, NZ at speciality and all breeds level. Licenced for groups 2, 5, 6 plus obedience - endurance, Sharon is now studying group 3. Pres NSW Sth Border Collie Club, delegate to ANKC, Councillor Sydney RAS. Sharon has not judged group 2 in Victoria for several years, we welcome Sharon to our 2019 judging panel.

Kerin Hutchings: Kerin with her daughter is well noted by the Suliman prefix having bred and shown top winning Afghans for many years. Currently campaigning Chinese Cresteds also. Licenced for groups 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7 Kerin is studying for her final group to attain her all breeds status. Judging throughout Australia and NZ with overseas experience. This is her first appointment for group 3 in Victoria, we welcome Kerin back to the Sunshine KC panel for 2019.

Cheryl Currie: Cheryl obtained her all breed status in 2009. A specialist judge for group 4 breeding, showing Rhodesian Ridgebacks her Caprivi prefix producing BIS winners, grand and supreme champions for almost 30 years. Cheryl has judged extensively throughout Australasia, countries Mexico, Brazil, USA, South Africa, Japan, Finland, India and Indonesia. We welcome Cheryl back to Victoria and our Sunshine KC 2019 judging panel.

Anne-Marie Curren: Licenced for five groups, she has judged in all states of Australia, NZ, Sth Africa, France and Sweden. Commencing judging in mid 1980's her experience with purebred dogs began in 1975 with Basset Hounds. Pointers were introduced in 1986 to her kennel and in 1996 came the Whippets. Whippets remain her passion. Anne-Marie has been invited to judge all of her chosen breeds at both speciality and all breed exhibitions overseas. Anne-Marie has not judged group 5 in Victoria for several years we welcome her to our 2019 panel.

Ray Wall: Licenced for group 4 in 2010 Ray has continued his studies and now has licences for groups 3 and 6. Breeding multiple champions since 1990 in Golden Retrievers and grand champions in Standard Long Dachshunds, the Dachshunds have remained. Judging appointments in NSW, SA, Qld and Victoria, Ray is currently studying group 1. This will be his first judging appointment for group 6 in Victoria, we welcome Ray back to our 2019 panel.

Peter R King: Well known by his Greysouthen Weimaraners having gained many grand, supreme, international BIS/BISS titles with this breed in all disciplines. Flatcoat Retrievers were introduced in the early 2000's importing from Sweden. Licenced for group 3 and 7 studying toys, Peter has judged throughout Australia, NZ, Asia, Japan, Scandinavia, Ireland, Europe and the Americas. A keen educator he lectures for judges trainees in different states of Australia and is chair for many canine clubs. Peter has a special interest in Dalmatians, Great Danes, British Bulldogs and Standard Poodles. Several years since he has judged in Victoria we welcome Peter with his keen knowledge and experience for Sunshine KC 2019.

RMMBPS: Anthony Price: Anthony has been in 'dogdom' since birth. Currently holding licences for group 2, 5 and 6. Anthony has stewarded since a teenager and has studied at close hand many breeds, currently the Show Manager for the Melbourne Royal. Anthony has judged in Australia and New Zealand to date and as he knew Rob personally, we are delighted that he joins us on the panel for 2019, judging the Robert Mashford Memorial Baby Puppy Sweepstakes.
